

"Bears in this forest are huge, and ferocious." said Raven. "They'll probably eat yetis like you before we've gone too far."

Not me though, I've been practising all year and I'm ready ... look, I've got my bear stick, and my moves are ninja slick!"

Flint laughed and walked on ... but Idaho held back on the path.

He didn't think that bears ate yetis, but he didn't really want to find out for sure. He'd never heard of a bear stick and definitely didn't know how to use one! He turned on his paws and ran back to the yeti village
