

Hello Rainbows!

Thank you for making us such a great den to hide in. It was lovely and dark, but the paper was a wee bit tickly. When we were sleeping Dot kept waking me up giggling! Is there something else you could try in our bed instead?

It is really fun being in the Rainbows with you all, but we really missed you when you went home. Could you think of something to help us feel a bit less lonely?

Be ROARSOME

Yet and Dot xx
