

The ghosts
were huge!

And they flew straight at us!

And they said they were going to get me !!

When they reached the yeti village, the Yeti Elder listened to their story with a twinkle in his eye. He smiled, and reassured them that he'd help them know just what to do if they thought they heard a ghost again.

"You better get reading too Flint," said Raven, "we'll need more book smarts as well as my patience and Ninja type bravery when we try 'The Long Walk' next time."
