

SINK OR FLOAT YETI SCIENCE

Fill an old fish tank, large bowl or sink with water and find a number of different objects from around the house that you don't mind getting wet. Guess together whether they'll sink or float and count how many you guess right.

Help older children work out why some things sink and some things float. You could use Google for information.

