

ADDING FRIENDS OR 'FRIENDS OF FRIENDS'?

DO THE HOMEWORK!

We often add people online because they're on a friend's list, so they must be okay, right?

But your friend might have added them randomly, liked their profile picture, or met them on a gaming platform.

It's smart to do a bit of detective work with anyone you don't know in real life.

- Do their photos look genuine?
- Do they appear in pictures with people you already know?
 - Can they explain how they know your friend?

IF IN DOUBT, CHECK IT OUT.

It's better to leave someone waiting for a couple of days than to let a troll or a creep into your socials.
