

Yeah, look ...
the snow
is melted

"Yeah, look... the snow is melted," Raven continued, pointing up toward the mountain. He looked quite pleased with himself - until he noticed Flint and Idaho's faces.

But you
never asked!!

"It's ok Raven," said Idaho who could see Raven starting to get teary-eyed and grumpy again, "It's great that we know now. It's always best when you need a new plan to use what you know already."

I'll go first,
I know all the
river stuff!

Let's make
a new plan
and look for
a bridge.
