

Raven was the oldest of the three yetis, which not only made him taller, it made his confidence in his abilities unshakeable.

I'm a Ninja Master!

Raven had also been to three Ninja Yeti lessons and considered himself now a master ... much too skilled for stone jumping across the river!

He was going to log balance across with 'super-stealth and cat-like reflexes'.

Stand back and watch this.

