TROLL AWARENESS

Look at this set of questions and think about the answers truthfully.

- Have you ever posted something online about someone you know they wouldn't want posted or shared in a group chat?

- Have you ever created a fake profile for someone you know for laughs?

- Have you ever signed someone up for something online without their permission?

- Have you ever 'liked' something mean or cruel because it was posted by a friend?

- Have you ever messaged or chatted pretending to be someone else?

- Have you ever shared something on someone else's account behind their back?

- Where should the line be drawn between 'having a laugh' and cyber bullying?

What sort of an impact could 'a laugh' online have on someone on the receiving end whose vulnerable?
